100TH BATTALION 442ND INFANTRY
APO 758, U. S. Army

SUMMARY OF EVENTS FOR MONTH ENDING 31 AUGUST 1944

From 1 August 1944 to 2 August 1944 the Battalion remained in Division rest area in the vicinity of Vada, Italy, (Q133253).

On 3 August 1944 Company "A" moved into the City of Livorno, Italy, to guard installations throughout the City under verbal orders of Commanding General, 34th Infantry Division.

On 4 August 1944 the Battalion, less Company "A", moved approximately 1000 yards toward the sea to 34th Infantry Division Rest Camp where men were to be given the opportunity of taking full advantage of rest, swimming and recreational facilities provided by the American Red Cross unit of the 34th Infantry Division.

On 5 August 1944, Technical Sergeants Kenneth K. Kaneko, 30102290, and Fred S. Kanemura, 30102379, were commissioned Second Lieutenants, Infantry, Army of the United States.

At 0800 hours, 9 August 1944, the Battalion, less Company "A", left the Division Rest Camp and proceeded to the original Battalion area approximately 1000 yards inland.

At 1900 hours, 9 August 1944, Company "B" relieved Company "A" as installations guard in the City of Livorno, Italy.

On 10 August 1944 the 100th Infantry Battalion Separate redesignated 100th Battalion, 442nd Infantry per Section V, General Orders No. 132, Headquarters Fifth Army, dated 2 August 1944.

At 1800 hours, 11 August 1944, the Battalion placed on 24 hour alert by the Regimental Commander.

On 12 August 1944 the Battalion, less Company "B", conducted a combat attack problem from 0900 hours to 1130 hours.

At 1030 hours, 14 August 1944, Company "B" having been relieved of installations guard by Company "E" of the 135th Infantry, left Livorno to rejoin the Battalion at Vada, Italy, at 1130 hours, 14 August 1944.

On 14 August 1944 Company "C" represented the Battalion in a ceremony held in the City of Livorno, Italy, in honor of Lieutenant General Brehon Somervell, Commanding General of the Army Service Forces and Under-Secretary of War Patterson.

Effective 15 August 1944 the Battalion with the 442nd Infantry detached from the 34th Infantry Division and attached to the IV Corps. Commanding General IV Corps attached the 100th Battalion to Task Force No. 45, effective 0001 hours, 15 August 1944, per Operations Instruction No.

40, dated 14 August 1944. The Battalion was further attached to the 107th AAA Group effective 0001 hours, 15 August 1944, by Commanding General, Task Force No. 45 per Orders No. 18, dated 14 August 1944.

Orders were received at Headquarters 107th AAA Group on 15 August 1944 that this Battalion will relieve elements of the 536th AAA Battalion, less D Battery, and the 240/39 LAA Battery and will hold forward Positions along present line with patrols to be sent out to prevent any enemy infiltrations in our sector; contact to be maintained with elements of the 439th AAA Battalion on the left and the 91st Reconnaissance Squadron Group on the right; and to be prepared to follow up any enemy withdrawals. The Chemical Mortar Detachment of the 536th AAA Battalion to remain in position and attached to the 100th Battalion for operational control, rations, and medical care.

At 1800 hours, 16 August 1944, the Battalion left the bivouac area near Vada, Italy. After stopping enroute twice to await darkness, the Battalion traveled approximately 30 miles on trucks and then marched on foot approximately 3 miles to relieve the 536th AAA Battalion and the 240/39 LAA Battalion. The relief was completed progressively by 0300 hours, 17 August 1944, without encountering enemy opposition.

At 1400 hours, 17 August 1944, Private Sadao H. Kubo, 30105126, was wounded in action by enemy artillery shell. At 1500 hours, Company "A" contacted elements of the 91st Reconnaissance Group on the Battalion right flank. After the relief of the 536th AAA Battalion had been completed, the Battalion was disposed as follows: Company "B" on the left in town of Oratoio, Italy, (Q137627), Company "A" at (Q163621), Company "C" at Q149626, Battalion CP at Q144618, and Company "D" CP at Q144617.

At 0045 hours, 18 August 1944, the three rifle companies were instructed to send out a patrol of one officer and 4 enlisted men from each company to start out at 0200 hours, 19 August 1944, to contact the enemy.

On 19 August 1944, the Battalion Commander received orders to extend the Battalion sector to the left to relieve the 439th AAA Battalion during the hours of darkness of 19 and 20 August 1944. Due to the over-extended Battalion front, the Anti-tank Platoon of Headquarters Company was moved into the lines between Company "C" and Company "B" at 2300 hours, 19 August 1944. During the day the following units were attached to the 100th Battalion for operational control, ration, water, ammunition supply, and medical care: One Platoon of the 91st Reconnaissance Group, one Platoon of the Reconnaissance Company of the 894th TD Battalion, and one Provisional Infantry Platoon of B Battery of the 434th AAA Battalion.

A combat patrol of 31 enlisted men from Company "C", armed with 8 Thompson Sub-machine guns, 3 Browning Automatic Rifles, and Rifles, led by 2d Lt Kazuma Hisanaga, 01703068, and 2d Lt Saburo Maehara, 0343584, left Company "C" area at 1200 hours, 20 August 1944, to the vicinity of the Shoe Factory located at Q168629 with mission of wiping out enemy outposts and to capture prisoners. However, the patrol returned at 0145 hours, 21 August 1944, without having made contact with the enemy.

Unit History for Month

Cpl Thomas T. Mekata, 30102090, Company "D", was killed in action on 21 August 1944.

Routine patrols to contact the enemy and feel out enemy positions were sent out from 22 August 1944 to 28 August 1944.

On 22 August 1944, S Sgt Atsuo Sahara, 30102274, Company "A", and Pfc Kinji Saito, 30100891, Headquarters Company, were killed in action.

On 24 August 1944, a British Colonel and a Major from the 258/47 LAA (British) arrived at the Battalion CP for necessary instructions preparatory to the 258/47 LAA (British) moving into the Battalion sector to fill-in the gap created by the wide front covered by the Battalion.

Technical Sergeant Mickey Y. Nakahara, 30101110, Company "B", was commissioned Second Lieutenant, Infantry, Army of the United States, at a ceremony held in the vicinity of Grecciano, Italy, by Lieutenant General Mark W. Clark, Commanding Fifth Army, on 24 August 1944. At the ceremony held in the vicinity of Grecciano, Italy, on 24 August 1944, Private First Class Haruto Kuroda, 30101838, and Private Thomas Y. Ono, 30105796, both of Company "B", were presented the Distinguished-Service Cross by Lieutenant General Mark W. Clark.

At 0030 hours, 25 August 1944, 258/47 LAA (British) relieved Company "B" in its sector on the front-lines.

On 26 August 1944, information was received from Headquarters Fifth Army that Technical Sergeant Wasato Harada, 30102276, now absent sick in hospital, had been appointed Second Lieutenant, Infantry, Army of the United States and that his appointment would be effective upon his acceptance and submission of Oath of Office.

At 2200 hours, 26 August 1944, in the vicinity of Pisa, Italy, the following officer and enlisted men were presented the Bronze Star Medal by Lieutenant Colonel Gordon Singles, Commanding 100th Battalion:

A patrol of one officer and 3 enlisted men from Company "A" was sent out at 0125 hours, 27 August 1944, returning at 0250 hours with report that a house located at Q17556270 was not occupied by the enemy. A patrol of the same strength sent out from Company "B" returned after observing enemy activity in the vicinity of Cemetery at Q140630.

A patrol sent out by Company "C" at 2250 hours, 26 August 1944, saw a 6 man enemy patrol advancing South along the Arno River. After allowing the enemy patrol to come within 15 yards, the Company "C" patrol opened fire, killing three. The other three enemy escaped under cover of darkness.

At 0615 hours, 28 August 1944, two Germans were spotted by the 1st Platoon CP of Company "A" near a road junction at Q166628 and were seen proceeding Southward along the road. The Company "A" line of outposts was notified of the presence of enemy soldiers in the Company sector. As the enemy approached our lines, they set off one of our mines, injuring one. The other enemy seeing his wounded comrade and sensing the presence of our troops fled towards his lines. The wounded German was captured and upon interrogation, it was learned that he had been acting as OP for his machine gun position and that he was a member of 7th Company, 147th Regiment, 65th Division of the Luftwaffe Ground Forces. No tactical information was obtained since the prisoner claimed that he had been discharged from the hospital just a few days prior to his capture. The prisoner was evacuated by our Battalion Medics.

From 0945 hours to 1100 hours, 29 August 1944, Company "A" and "C" advanced approximately 300 yards to new and more favorable positions toward the Arno River without meeting any opposition.

At 2000 hours, 29 August 1944, Company "D" 81mm mortars laid a smoke barrage along the entire Battalion front to get enemy reaction and to ascertain the strength and location of the enemy along the Battalion sector. The Germans apparently believing that a surprise attack was being launched, opened up with every weapon available, machine guns, machine pistols, mortars, and artillery, for about 30 minutes, disclosing many heretofore unknown positions.

At 2200 hours, 29 August 1944, in the vicinity of Pisa, Italy, Second Lieutenant Mickey Y. Nakahara, 01695664, Private Eishin M. Akamine, 30105583, and Pfc Richard H. Koga, 30105087, were presented Silver Star Medal by the Battalion Commander at the Battalion CP.

At 0330 hours, 30 August 1944, patrol from Company "C" was sent out to reconnoiter the area. The patrol returned at 0150 hours, 30 August 1944 with information that enemy had been seen and heard at Q153631. At 1045 hours, 30 August 1944, Company "A" reported that they were being subjected to mortar fire every 15 to 20 minutes interval at Q172628, Q166626, and Q163625 from the direction of Campo (Q163645).
